Josy's Little Library NEWSLETTER

Sneak Peek

I started out as a novelist, but last year, along with the talented illustrator Tamtoo, I created a children's book for Josy's French and American grandmas. It was such a hit with the family that we decided to go ahead and publish it for the public! (Between this project and the sequel to Emmy and the Iris, it's been a busy year!). GRANDMA AND MAMIE is the perfect gift for any French-American family, so if you would like a copy, please keep an eye on your email for our publication announcement in just a few weeks! Already interested? Let us know by email and we'll add you to the pre-order list (no obligation)! Best, Amy

"One grandma is American, lives in the USA and speaks English. The other is French, lives in France and speaks French. In fact, they are different in so many ways... but what they have in common is more important! In this fun, uplifting, bilingual book, children will discover life in a French-American family and understand that no matter where we come from, what we share is more important than what makes us different."

Giveaway Winner

Thanks to everyone who participated in our character-naming giveaway on Instagram! The winner (its\_a\_french.thing) suggested "Brieg", the Breton name for "Brieuc", for one of the twins. She and her family won a copy of Emmy and the Iris and will also receive an advance copy of Emmy and the Flower Girl. Don't hesitate to check out the account @its\_a\_french.thing on Instagram with its lovely pictures and history of France.
